

California Woman Wins $100,000 Playing Gaming Arts' Super Coverall Big Jackpot Bingo at BJ's Bingo & Gaming in Washington

LAS VEGAS: June 27, 2018 – Gaming Arts, LLC (“Gaming Arts” or “the Company”) today announced that a lucky California woman, who wishes to remain anonymous, recently won $100,000 playing the Company’s Super Coverall Big Jackpot Bingo at BJ’s Bingo & Gaming in Fife, Wash.

The woman, a California resident in her fifties, was playing the Moonlight bingo session on June 12 when she hit on the 46th ball for the super COVERALL and an amazing instant win of $100,000.

BJ’s Bingo & Gaming celebrated her win with a jackpot party complete with balloons, confetti, and cake for all players. The lucky player returned to California $100,000 richer.

BJ’s Bingo General Manager Jenynne DeNoble said, “It was exciting to see one of our patrons win such a large prize. When we realized that she won, the entire bingo room became a celebration. This is an experience that only Gaming Arts can provide our players.”

Gaming Arts’ Super Coverall Big Jackpot Bingo multi-win bingo game features a $100,000 grand prize for the lucky player who achieves a COVERALL in 50 or less, along with numerous smaller prizes. Gaming Arts pays the jackpots, enabling the bingo operator to focus on exciting their players and increasing bottom-line revenue.

Gaming Arts’ President Mike Dreitzer said, “One of the best parts of my job is seeing enthusiastic people win great prizes playing our exciting bingo games. BJ’s Bingo is a fantastic partner and it is truly rewarding to know that we have again changed a player’s life forever with our ‘life-changing jackpot’ games. This is especially gratifying as it occurred at such a fabulous bingo facility.”

This $100,000 jackpot follows yet another big win, which recently occurred when an Arizona man took home an incredible $1,000,000 playing the Gaming Arts’ Bingo Millions® game. Bingo Millions® is the world’s richest ongoing bingo game. Gaming Arts is well-known in the bingo world for its vast library of exciting and creative bingo games, which offer “life-changing jackpots” along with a host of other great prizes. Every year, Gaming Arts pays out millions in prizes to lucky bingo enthusiasts across the country.
